Egypt – Additional personal income tax introduced.

On 4 March 2020, the government of Egypt announced the Law No. 4 of 2021, amending provisions of the Law No. 16 of 2018, establishing a fund honoring the martyrs, victims, missing and the injured of war and security operations and terror attacks and their families.

According to the new law, an additional personal income tax of 0.05% will be applied to the salaries of private and public sector employees, excluding daily paid or temporary employees. However, the government is still in the process of finalizing the exact instructions related to the calculation and remittance of the additional tax.

Please contact your Mercans' services delivery team for any additional information regarding the implications of the above change.
