NelsonHall Highlights the Strength of Mercans' Global Employer of Record Services

NelsonHall has released its vendor assessment of Mercans' global employer of record services which focuses on the international EOR industry leader's offerings and capabilities.

LONDON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--"We are delighted that NelsonHall, the leading global analyst firm, has recognized Mercans as one of the fastest growing technology-driven global employer of record service providers. NelsonHall's analyst report is a testament to the success of our EOR service line and demonstrates that our proprietary technology, combined with Mercans' local presence in 160 countries, creates value for our customers and their employees," said Tatjana Domovits, Group CEO of Mercans.

Mercans' global employer of record services delivery model is unique in the industry and focuses on the excellence in customer and employee experience through digitalization, employee-centric support, and in-country expertise. Mercans has invested significantly in developing a proprietary global payroll software, HR Blizz™ with 160 country coverage and built-in integration with major HCM solutions, including Workday, UKG, Ceridian Dayforce, SuccessFactors, and Darwinbox. Mercans has also established a native services delivery infrastructure of local offices and experts across the globe.

"Mercans' global employer of record services has an unparalleled quality that is built on a non-aggregator services delivery model and the use of technology. We never use subcontractors, ICPs or third-party software solutions. Our clients and their employees are always supported by Mercans' experts and their data never leaves Mercans' IT infrastructure with its military-grade data security protocols." added Salman Saeed, Mercans' Global EOR Head.

In addition to offering global employer of record services, Mercans is the only industry provider with the full spectrum of international payroll solutions on a single platform. Customers have the full flexibility of utilizing either Mercans' global payroll SaaS, managed payroll, or employer of record services on the same platform, without having to manage multiple vendors and systems.
